

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The progress and well-being of the citizens of South Dakota depend to a great extent upon education and training for work as provided in the school systems of this State; and,

WHEREAS, Profound sociological, economic and technological changes in our society are bringing about rapid changes in the structure and nature of work thereby placing new and additional responsibilities on the educational system; and,

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States and the Legislature of the State of South Dakota have recognized these problems and have acted upon them through appropriate legislation; and,

WHEREAS, Professional contributions of the Vocational Educators of this State have assisted youth and adults in the process of preparation for work; and,

WHEREAS, The American Vocational Association, by representative assembly, has established the second week in February as "Vocational Education Week" and this is supported by the South Dakota Vocational Association who wish to stress the importance of the theme, "Know How for the 80's":

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of February 10-17, 1980, as

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

In South Dakota and further dedicate this week to all the vocational teachers, administrators, and students who are contributing to the process of preparation for work. I urge all citizens of the State to observe this week by making themselves better acquainted with Vocational Education purposes and programs in their area.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty
